SUMMIT COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD LEADERSHIP, WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS.

The Summit County Historical Society, located at 465 South Portage Path, is proud to announce its new Board leadership: President, Richard Comstock of Fairlawn, Vice President Russell Sibert of Hudson, Treasurer Jeff Walters of Akron, and Secretary Renee Pipitone of Copley.

The Board also welcomed their six new members: Joe Abraham of Akron, Chip Billow of Tallmadge, John Poda of Uniontown, Michael Sweeney of Akron, David Waddell of Bath, Thomas Welsch of Akron, and Tonya Wright of Akron.

“Summit County Historical Society has worked hard this past year,” explained director Paula Moran. “We have created many new programs and events, and will continue to work to reach out to our community. I look forward to the help and expertise these new members bring to our Board.”

Founded in 1924, the Summit County Historical Society is a private, 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation. Their mission is to preserve and interpret the history of Summit County and Akron, and to educate regional communities about the people and events that have shaped our rich history.
