SUMMIT COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO HOST BOOK SIGNING.

The newest addition to the SCHS collection of publications celebrates the simple pleasures of seeing a community at a slow pace from ground level. Walks Around Akron: Rediscovering a City in Transition by Russ Musarra and Chuck Ayers is a collection of articles and watercolor illustrations created for the Akron Beacon Journal. These popular essays-with-art began in March of 1987 and continued in the newspaper through the end of 2000.

Anyone who enjoys walking or discovering overlooked sites will appreciate the informative charm of these stories and pictures that embrace Akron's history, its downtown and neighborhood development, its institutions and parks, and interesting nearby communities.

Be one of the first to acquire a signed copy of this beautiful hardback book by attending a signing reception hosted by the Summit County Historical Society at Perkins Stone Mansion, 465 South Portage Path, on September 28 from 4:00 - 7:00 P.M. Meet the authors, enjoy some refreshments, and reminisce about Akron of yesteryear. This event is open to the public, for reservations please call 330/535-1120.

Founded in 1924, the Summit County Historical Society is a private, 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation. Their mission is to preserve and interpret the history of Summit County and Akron, and to educate regional communities about the people and events that have shaped our rich history. To learn more about the Summit County Historical Society please call (330)535-1120 or visit the web site at www.summithistory.org.
